

WhatsApp Web 網頁版 Mobile app is a smartphone messenger that allow you to message good friends via your 3G or WiFi contact. It costs a few US$dollars every to run, but sending messages costs nothing. And it works on iPhone, Android, Symbian and Blackberry phones.

Love it or hate it, Internet explorer is still the King, Queen and Jack of WhatsApp web Windows. I hate it less with each successive version, but the fact that offers browsing experience feels as being a chore doesn't go away. I use it for Windows Update (grr) and irritating forays into Hotmail that require me to paste links into a great browser. Through the time they get rid of it I'll definitely using another thing - the tabs idea is badly implemented. I'd rather use Safari.

And this is where Flock comes in to specific. A special sidebar displays all the latest social networking updates when you have logged to the your accounts, and it enables an individual upload huge amounts of pics and vids to net. It also lets you drag and drop text, links etc to your pages, and also has a built in Blog editor (drag and drop repeatedly!).
